NEWSLETTER 13 | 15 AUGUST 2025

From Tumuaki Cath Knell

He aha te mea nui o te ao

He tangata, he tangata, he tangata

What is the most important thing in the world?

It is the people, it is the people, it is the people.

Mālō e lelei

I open with a greeting in Tongan as we look forward to celebrating Tongan Language Week with our students, staff and wider community next week, 18 – 22 August.

School Board Parent Election

We are delighted in the interest shown by our parents who have been nominated for the School Board. 29 nominations were received for the five parent-elected positions. An opportunity for our parent community to Meet the Candidates has been organised for Wednesday 27 August 2025 in the school staffroom. We encourage you to come along and hear from those standing so you can put a face to the name and make informed selections when voting. Voting closes 4.00pm Wednesday 10 September.

Course Selection – Planning for 2026

Conversations during the Parent-Student-Teacher, PST, interviews has resulted in 80% of our students having selected their courses for 2026. If you haven't confirmed your child's courses please remember that these selections close 11.00am Monday 18 August.

Auckland Schools Teacher Training Programme, ASTTP

<https://www.schoolbasedtraining.org/> The opportunity to train while working was highlighted in our last edition of NewsLink. We are now being asked to confirm numbers for 2026. If you are wondering whether this could possibly be a good pathway for you (eg career change) then do email us at admin@lynfield.school.nz.

Hinengaro wawata - we are ambitious

Our Term 3 Korowai value of Hinengaro wawata - includes we are ambitious. With student nominations for senior leadership positions having closed on Monday this is particularly relevant. Please note, this is with the exception of House Captains (nominations close 5.00pm Monday 18 August <https://shorturl.at/pzEko>) and the Student Representative on the School Board (nominations close noon on Friday 22 August).

With the focus being on leadership I have been speaking in assemblies about the leadership shown at all year levels with a particular celebration of our student volunteers who helped out during enrolment interviews, our student sports team captains and coaches, our buddies for supporting our visiting students from overseas, and our buddies for students new to our school. We thank those who are leading by example by providing positive and encouraging support on the sidelines, as an audience for our performance groups, and as wearers of our school uniform.

This week has seen a disappointing number of senior students being sent home to change into full and correct uniform and phone calls to parents to drop this off for our junior students. We expect all students to be wearing full school uniform, including on the way to and from school.

Lynfield College Alumni News

KEERTHANRAJ VAIDYALINGAM

Mr Christie recently caught up with Lynfield College alumnus Keerthanraj Vaidyalingam at the University of Auckland. Keerthanraj was a student at Lynfield College from 2016 to 2020 and is now just one semester away from graduating with a degree in Optometry from the University of Auckland. He met with his former Dean, Mr Christie, to share his journey since leaving school.

He reflected warmly on his time at Lynfield, especially his teachers who inspired and supported him throughout his school years. His first year at university was heavily interrupted by Covid-19 and lockdowns, but the determination and work ethic Keerthanraj displayed at Lynfield carried onto University and helped him through. He has enjoyed his studies and his degree has enabled him to see different parts of New Zealand, having done placements in Ashburton and Queenstown in recent times. He has also kept in close contact with many of his Lynfield friends, maintaining strong connections from his school days.

After five years of study, Keerthanraj is ready for the next chapter and admits he won't miss sitting exams! He has recently accepted his first job and will be moving to Taupō after graduation to work at Specsavers. It was great to see Keerthanraj again and we wish him all the best as he embarks on this exciting new stage.

JESSICA KUMAR

I'm a proud Lynfield College alumna from the Class of 2007.

Back in my final year, I had the privilege of working with a group of students and teachers to develop the Lynfield College Code of Conduct. I was genuinely delighted to see on the school website recently that it's still in use today!

When I left school, I remember feeling so lost about how to tell my own "non-traditional" stories – the ones built on school leadership roles, part-time jobs, and family responsibilities – in a way that employers would value. That challenge became a thread that's run through my career in finance, governance, and mentoring.

Most recently, I published a practical eBook, So Tell Me About Yourself, to help students, graduates, and early-career professionals build confidence in interviews, craft compelling CVs, and tell their stories authentically – even when they feel like they don't have "enough" experience. The guide includes templates, reflection prompts, and practical advice I've refined through years of mentoring and hiring.

Thank you for all you continue to do for the Lynfield community, and for the support you gave me all those years ago.

2OED Whatipu Camp

Our level 2 Outdoor Education students recently travelled through the wild west coast for an unforgettable camp at Whatipu. The adventure began with the Omanawanui Track, a steep and challenging hike rewarded with staggering views looking over the Manukau Harbour, the Waitākere Ranges, and the rugged black-sand coastline. Students dug deep, showing determination, teamwork, and plenty of encouragement for one another as they made their way along the mountain ranges.

A big part of the experience was applying the risk management skills we've been learning in class. Students assessed potential hazards on the track, made smart decisions about pace and footing, and looked out for one another to ensure everyone stayed safe. This mindset carried through to our next challenge, exploring the Whatipu Caves. Armed with torches, careful planning, and an awareness of their surroundings, the group uncovered the caves' fascinating history and unique geological formations. The camp was a perfect mix of challenge, learning, and fun building resilience, strengthening friendships, and creating memories that will be talked about for years to come.

Shinagawa Summer School

Our student group from Shinagawa, Japan is with us until 22 August and has been making the most of their time in Auckland. They have enjoyed their ESOL classes, worked hard to improve their English, and taken part in memorable excursions including visits to Auckland City Council, the zoo, and a ferry trip to Devonport. We hope they are enjoying every moment of their New Zealand adventure, creating memories to treasure and a lasting fondness for Auckland.

Cook Islands Language Week

Last week at Lynfield we celebrated Cook Islands Language Week. The theme for this year was "Ātui'tui'ia au ki te raurau a tōku matakeinanga," which translates to "Connect me to the offerings of my people'.

To start the week off our Young Māori Leaders, Galaxy and Akeelah, introduced the week to kaiako in morning staff briefing. The Young Māori and Pacific Pride Leaders prepared a slideshow which was shared to the Hui mai classes. On Wednesday some of the students prepared Cook Island donuts to give out at the Marae.

Thank you to all who contributed and supported this kaupapa.

Student Leadership Expo

On Tuesday 5 August, Lynfield College held its annual Leadership Expo during lunchtime in the quad outside the hall. The event was a chance for students to explore the many leadership opportunities available at our school. Current students in leadership positions from a variety of roles including cultural, sports, academic, arts, Pacific Pride and Young Māori Leaders were on hand to share their experiences, answer questions, and offer advice. Students could learn what each role involves, the skills they could gain, and how leadership can make a positive impact on the school community. The Expo encouraged many to consider stepping up and making their mark as future leaders of Lynfield College.

Assessment / Exam Weeks

These are being held in Weeks 8 and 9 (Monday 1st – Friday 12th September).

During this time, students will be participating in practice external exams, internal practical assessments, Te Kura exams, and LITNUM exams.

LITNUM exams are scheduled in Week 8 as follows:

- Numeracy: Thursday 4th September. Morning (students A - L), Afternoon (students M - Z)
- Literacy: Friday 5th September, Morning

We encourage students to check the Student Version Sept Exam Timetable 2025 for any exam clashes and to see Ms Ram immediately if they have a clash.

Student Version Sept Exam Timetable 2025

Study Leave:

- Year 12 and 13 students will be on study leave and are only required to attend school for their exams/assessments.
- Year 11 students will follow their normal timetable. Those in a Level 2 exam class should go to the study room (F 9&10) during periods when their usual class would run.

If a student is absent from school for an exam, it may not be possible in some subjects to sit an alternative paper for a derived grade.

Being on an overseas trip isn't considered a valid reason for missing exams. If your child is planning to be away from school due to an overseas trip, please ensure you send a letter to our principal, Ms Knell, prior to the planned absence. This lets us know about the situation ahead of time. Students should also avoid making appointments during exam times.

We want to support students in doing their best in these assessments. Regular attendance during exam weeks is crucial for students to demonstrate their learning. If you have any questions about exam attendance or procedures, feel free to get in touch with Deputy Principal, Sandy Harris SaHarris@lynfield.school.nz

Parent Student Teacher Conferences

Our second round of Parent-Student-Teacher Conferences (PSTs) took place on 4th and 5th August, providing a valuable opportunity for students, parents, and teachers to discuss option courses for 2026, academic progress, and reflect on the goals set earlier in the year.

On Thursday evening, we also hosted a Talanoa and Hui for our Year 12 and 13 Pasifica and Māori students. Our Academic Advisor, Mr Waddington, shared insights on available scholarships, while our Careers Advisers, Mr Christie and Mrs Harvey, offered guidance on navigating option choices and career pathways. It was wonderful to see parents connecting and discussing the current education landscape.

A note for parents and caregivers: If you would like to discuss your child's progress in a specific subject area with their teacher, simply email your child's Hui Mai teacher, and they'll arrange with the relevant subject teacher to contact you.

Annual Community Survey

Next week, the link to our annual community survey will be emailed to you. We appreciate your time in letting us know how we are doing.

In 2024, our community strongly believed that the school provided opportunities for their children to succeed, and that their children were happy at school. The school was also successful in respecting the wide range of cultures at the school, and that the teaching meets children's needs. This year, we have expanded the range of courses available to meet student needs. These include a specified pathway to University of Auckland Engineering for Year 13s, the introduction of Samoan language and Psychology for senior students, and some new options for Year 10 that start pathways for senior study. Teachers have had support in co-teaching strategies that support student learning in the new C Block.

We have taken on board the feedback that parents were less confident that they felt in partnership with the school. To build that partnership, we have included termly reporting on academic progress with the engagement reports and evaluated our processes around teachers contacting families so that teachers are more regularly reaching out.

Lynfield Celebrates 40 Years of Partnership with World Vision

Last week at the Year 13 assembly, we had a special guest Joel, one of World Vision's youth ambassadors. He spoke about the incredible impact Lynfield College's recent fundraising efforts in the 40 Hour Challenge will have on Pacific communities facing water shortages and the effects of climate change. He thanked all the students who took part in this year's Challenge, highlighting the dedication and compassion shown by our Lynfield community. A special mention went to Sumedha Singaraju, who raised the most money as an individual – an outstanding achievement!

Joel also presented a special plaque to Ms Knell and our World Vision ambassador coordinators, Nessa Isaac and Jonathan Mar, in recognition of Lynfield's 40-year partnership with World Vision – a legacy that began back in 1985. This plaque is a testament to our students' ongoing commitment to making a positive difference in the world. We look forward to continuing this important work and taking part in the 40 Hour Challenge again next year.

Quizzex Lunchtime Fun

Over the past two lunchtimes, students gathered in the hall for our much-anticipated annual Junior and Senior Quizzex event. With rounds ranging from English to Pop Culture, the event was packed with energy, teamwork, and a healthy dose of friendly rivalry. Congratulations to all participants for bringing their A-game — and to our winners for their impressive knowledge and quick thinking! We hope everyone enjoyed the event and we look forward to seeing you all at our next event!
